

DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION SUMMER SCHOOL 2006

Toward Effective Test Case Strategies

Using the European Union Framework Employment Directive (2000/78/EC) in a Disability Context.

6 June 16 June, 2006.

The focus of the second Disability Discrimination Summer School is the potential of the European Union Framework Directive on Employment Discrimination in the context of disability. It aims to raise general legal awareness about the practical potential of the Directive in the disability context and should appeal to a wide range of persons and bodies including practising lawyers, judges, law students and disability non-governmental organisations, as well as those more generally interested in public interest litigation.

The Summer School will take place at the National University of Ireland, Galway. It will be delivered by a distinguished international teaching faculty. Further information, including the programme and list of teaching faculty, is available from the following website
